Teaching faculty

Academic excellence

DoA has one of the largest concentrations of Faculty of Commerce & Management Studies. As a DoA MBus student, you benefit from this dedicated faculty in two ways; through access to quality teaching and cutting-edge academic research.

Real world relevance

Teaching at DoA is renowned for its dual emphasis on rigorous research and real world relevance. Faculty members routinely provide consultancy services to public and private sector organizations. This ensures the practical relevance of the Department's teaching and research.
